

Please join us for a special seminar with...

TIERNAN MENNEN

DIRECTOR OF LAND TENURE, HUMAN RIGHTS, AND RULE OF LAW, CHEMONICS INTERNATIONAL

Impacts of community and indigenous land and resource rights on sustainable development and conservation: a reflection on policy and programs in Ecuador, Colombia and Namibia

Thursday, February 20th, 4:00-5:00pm | 471 Grinter

Tiernan Mennen is a lawyer, economist, and specialist in the nexus of law and international development, with over 14 years of experience in human rights, access to justice, land & property rights, criminal justice, civil society, conflict mitigation, and good governance. He possesses extensive senior management experience on USAID, DFID, UNDP, and other donor-funded projects, from headquarters and in the field, including over seven years living overseas in Bolivia, Honduras, Peru, South Sudan, and Hungary. In his current post at Chemonics International, Mennen oversees a global practice area and portfolio of rule of law and land rights projects.

