

“Some Pointers on Publishing”

Friday, April 1st, 1:00-3:00 PM

376 Grinter Hall

A Workshop on Publishing Your Research

- Why should YOU publish?
- How do you decide where to publish your work?
- How do you write a paper that editors will want to publish AND your colleagues will want to read?
- What are the mechanics involved in submitting a manuscript for publication?

This workshop led by Dr. Emilio Bruna will help you better understand the world of academic publishing while providing an insiders view of a process that can be intimidating. By the end of this workshop you will be familiar with issues from assembly and authorship to rejection and revision.

Space is limited to 25 students, so sign up now – registration required!

Priority will be given to students associated with the Center for Latin American Studies (MALAS, TCD, ACLI), but is open to all students.

THIS WORKSHOP IS FOR STUDENTS OF THE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES, SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES
